

Job Description: Technical Director

Position Summary: The Technical Director is charged with supporting TCRA with functional knowledge of torque converter controls, troubleshooting diagnosis, and industry remanufacturing methods.

Key Accountabilities:

- Write Technical Articles, and edit articles that are submitted to or within the Association for technical accuracy.
- Lead Technical Discussions
- Lead the TCRA Technical Committee
- Attend and represent TCRA at industry events, specifically the annual TCRA Seminar
- Recognize current and future Industry trends in the converter remanufacturing field.
- Enter and verify accuracy of Tech Specs in the Technical Specification Library.
- Review, research, and respond to technical inquiries submitted to the Association via phone, e-mail, or TCRA E-Forum.

Qualifications/Experience:

Candidates should have a clear understanding of at least one of the following with general knowledge of the others -

- Torque converter and lockup theories of operation.
- Torque converter remanufacturing systems and processing methodology.
- Typical torque converter related drivability symptoms and diagnosis.
- Familiarity with industry solutions and key component suppliers.

Key Accountabilities:

- Drive for Results
- Ethics and Values
- Industry Focus
- Decision Quality

Primary Location: Home office or Seminar location

Salary: Commensurate with experience and qualifications.

Schedule: 20 hours/month.

Experience: 7+ years in the converter and/or transmission industry.

Travel: Yes – 5-10% of the time.

Send resumés to: TCRAworkforce@gmail.com